Moot court fun

I saw a great constitutional law moot court at GWU today, with Chief Justice John Roberts presiding over a panel that also included 2nd Circuit Judges Guido Calabresi and Sonia Sotomayor. The Chief Justice managed to flummox both the petitioners and the respondents with his hypotheticals (factual scenarios that posed problems for their legal theories). More here.

About Me

Nick Szabo

"A premier thinker about history, law and economics, and the lessons they have for security." -- Adam Shostack, Emergent Chaos

"Szabo comes out with these essays that leave me in awe." -- Brian Dunbar

"Reading material that is eclectic, challenging and endlessly fascinating." -- Sean McGrath, Propylon

"Like most blogs worth my attention, this blog is updated only infrequently. That is because the authors of blogs worth my attention only post when they have something to say that is true, relevant and not already known by their audience. Most of the human race does not have the skill to know when an idea has these three properties. The skill is particularly rare in the fields of politics and economics, which is why this blog is such a rare and valuable thing." -- Richard Hollerith
